NOTICE

The personal use of campaign funds is prohibited.* The use of campaign funds must be related to a political candidate for expenses incurred in connection with his campaign or the holding of a public office or party position. However, campaign funds may be used to reimburse a candidate for expenses incurred in connection with his campaign or office, to pay taxes on the interest earned on campaign funds or to replace articles lost, stolen, or damaged in connection with a campaign.

Excess campaign funds provided in 26 USC 170(f) or opposition to a proposal in future political campaigns may be returned to contributors on a pro rata basis, given as a charitable contribution as given to a charitable organization as defined in 26 USC 601(c)(3), expended in support of a political party, or candidacy of any person, or maintained in a segregated fund for use in or activity related to preparing for future candidacy to elective office.

*The prohibition on the personal use of campaign funds does not apply to campaign funds received prior to July 16, 1968.
